Registration Deadline
August 7, 2017

If there are low registrations in some classes, those will be cancelled.

If you need overnight lodging, the church is offering their facilities.

This will be the same as on a disaster response, by sleeping in the church – bring your sleeping bag/cot/air mattress and personal items.

If you prefer a motel, Quality Inn offers a corporate rate of $69/person. This will be at your own expense.

Meals are on your own.

How To Become a Trained Disaster Relief Volunteer

- Before attending any training please complete the Volunteer Packet and bring it with you or mail it in early. Volunteer Packet can be found on website: mwbc.org > Disaster Relief > Volunteer Packet of Forms
- You must attend the Disaster Relief basic course Involving Southern Baptists in Disaster Relief.
- You must also attend at least one unit training class.
- Background Check Authorization - will be completed and must be acceptable.
- ID Badges will be issued after background check is complete and completed volunteer packet is returned. The badges will be mailed after the training.

Already a Volunteer with a Cap and a Badge? To update your credentials for three years:

- You must attend the Disaster Relief basic course Involving Southern Baptists in Disaster Relief.
- Update your Personal Information and Release Form if necessary.

Background Check Authorization - will be completed and must be acceptable.

The new badge will be mailed after the training.

Cost is $20 for every NEW volunteer:

- Devotion Book
- Background Check
- Lanyard & ID Badge (after background check)
- Certificate
- Training Materials
- You will order and purchase your own shirt and hat with our order form.

$10 for returning volunteers:

- Certificate
- Training Materials
- Background Check (must be completed every 3 years)

If you already have your hat, shirt, ID badge, etc., and need to update your credential badge for another three years, you need to attend Involving Southern Baptists in Disaster Relief. You may also attend any additional unit trainings.

Wear your hat,
shirt & badge
to training!
